

Songwriting for grief and loss:

An intergenerational project between hospice patients and primary school children

Giorgos Tsiris, Donna Hastings, Becky Chaddock, Stephen Fischbacher & Margaret McLarty

arts@stcolumbashospice.org.uk

St Columba's
Hospice

CARE AND COMPASSION

fischymusic

Why music?

Why working with schools?

Project overview

Step 1: School staff training

Step 2: Music workshops

Step 3: Hospice visit

Step 4: Songwriting

Step 5: School performance

Step 6: Closing event at the hospice

Change Matters

By The Victoria Rockers

Time is passing by, something's got to change
Time is passing by, you'll still be the same

Trapped in a bubble of space and time
Stuck in a time-wave, don't know where to go
Tied in a web of worries and regrets Somewhere in the world, someone feels the same

*Seasons change around us
Day and night, day and night
Sun is shining bright*

There's a war of emotions in my head
Thinking about it, waking in my bed
Breaking through the darkness with happiness
Following the path of light and dreams

Seasons change around us [...]

Clouds are passing by nothing has to change Clouds are passing by you'll never feel the same

St Columba's
Hospice
CARE AND COMPASSION

fischy music

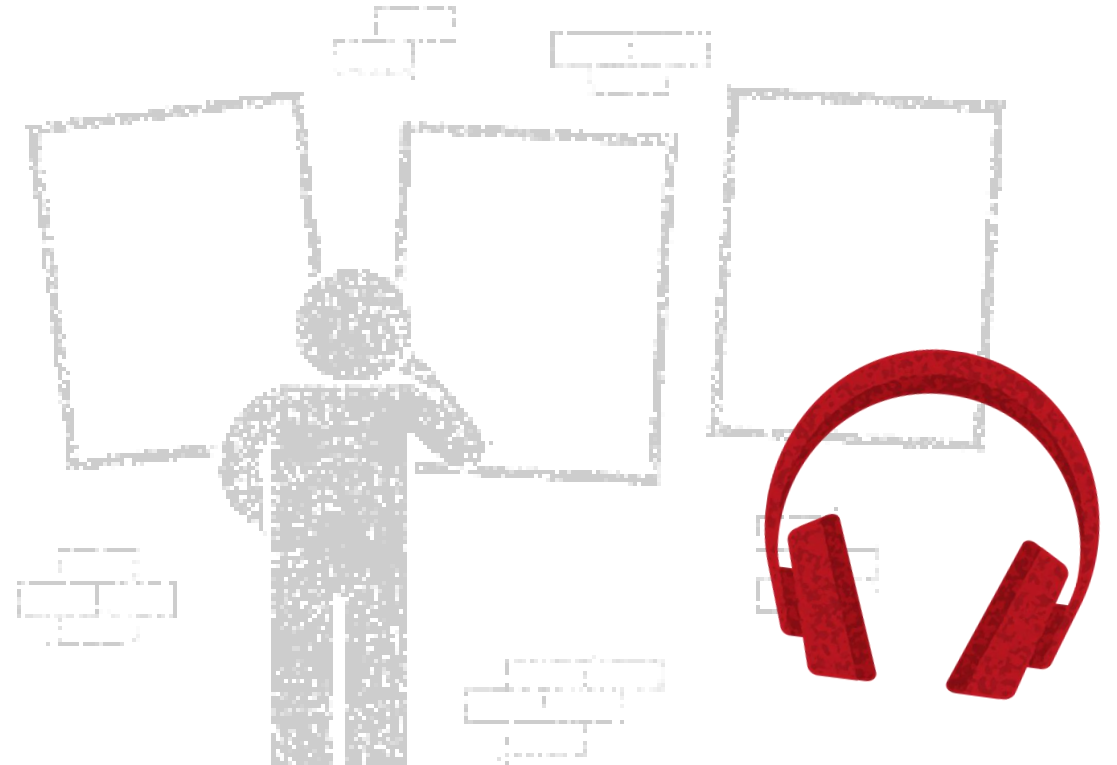

Change Matters

by

Victoria Rockers

- Pilot outcomes
- Nominated for the 2019 BBH Award
- Expansion to include East Lothian schools
- Repositioning the hospice as a resource hub

See you at our poster...!